

The Nature Museum at Grafton Presents the 2011 Vermont Fairy House Tour

Sat., Sept. 24, 11-4
Sun., Sept. 25, 11-4

TICKETS	ADVANCE	DAY
Children (3-18)	$4	$5
Adults	$10	$12
Srs. (62+)/Students	$8	$10
Family maximum	$30	$35

Ticket sales start August 15, 2011, at the Museum, Misty Valley Books in Chester, Village Square Booksellers in Bellows Falls, and Grafton Grocery Market. Tickets include Museum visit. Free parking; no pets.

Thank you to event sponsors: Underwriter Windham Foundation, Sustaining Supporters Cota & Cota, Inc., and Tania Evans.

Printing by NewsBank, Inc.

Enjoy a day of enchantment that's fun for all ages!

See custom-built dwellings and villages for fairies and other wee folk as you walk a short woodland trail during fall foliage season.

Decorate a fairy wreath headress or fairy wand. Listen to fairy stories.

Construct your own fairy house in the Museum's garden from materials we supply.

Visit the Museum. Bring a picnic. Celebrate a day of fun and creativity!

What can Fairy Houses do?

- * Excite children and adults to explore outdoors
- * Support No Child Left Inside
- * Encourage imagination and hands-on creativity
- * Provide quiet time to observe and discover
- * Teach respect for nature
- * Provide tons of fun!

Check our website for forms and photos!

Ticket proceeds benefit the Museum's educational programs and exhibits.
For more information, call 802-843-2111 or visit www.nature-museum.org.